Marshall University We Are Marshall Movie

It is my understanding that the We Are Marshall Movie about the Marshall University football team plane crash in 1970 will be coming to cable TV soon. I still dont have the heart to see that movie.

It's true, I watched it 2 times tonight and DVR'd it. I am a single parent to a 16 year old son, and after watching this movie, I would sign him up to be a part of the Marshall community anyday. We are from a small city in Iowa and some of our family from a small town in Illinois, and until you have grown up in a place like this, you really cannot appreciate or understand that feelings these people went through. I thought the movie was great, wish I hadn't waited so long to see it!

We bought the "We are Marshall" DVD and have watched it a few times. If you want to do yourself a favor, please watch the movie. It's tastefully presented, and, even though it might evoke a few tears, you'll come away from it with a wonderful feeling of community and will understand that even in the face of adversity, it's important for folks to go on.
